The Battle of Gettysburg, fought from July 1-3, 1863, was a pivotal moment in the American Civil War. The battle resulted in a Union victory and marked a turning point in the war, leading to the eventual defeat of the Confederacy. Today, Gettysburg is a national military park and a popular tourist destination. Visitors from around the world come to Gettysburg to learn about the battle and its significance in American history.

One of the best ways to experience Gettysburg is to take a guided tour. Crown Journeys offers a variety of tours, including the Hallowed Ground Walk. This tour is led by experienced historians who will share their knowledge of the battle and its aftermath.

The Hallowed Ground Walk

The Hallowed Ground Walk is a two-hour guided tour that takes visitors to some of the most important sites on the Gettysburg battlefield. The tour begins at the Gettysburg National Cemetery, where visitors will learn about the significance of the cemetery and the soldiers who are buried there.

From the cemetery, the tour continues to Culp's Hill, where visitors will learn about the fierce fighting that took place on this strategic hill. The tour then proceeds to Little Round Top, where visitors will learn about the heroic stand made by the 20th Maine Regiment.

The Hallowed Ground Walk concludes at the Pennsylvania Monument, where visitors will have a panoramic view of the battlefield. The tour guide will discuss the battle's significance and its impact on the course of American history.
