Lennox In Love's "Wishing That Was Yours" is a song about unrequited love. The lyrics are simple and straightforward, but they convey a deep sense of longing and regret.

Lyrics

The song begins with the singer describing how they see the object of their affection with someone else.

I see you with her, and it breaks my heart

I know that you're happy, but I can't help but feel apart

The singer goes on to express their desire to be with the person they love.

I wish that I was yours, and you were mine

I wish that we could be together, all the time

The song ends with the singer acknowledging that their love is unrequited.

I know that it's impossible, but I can't help but dream

I wish that you were mine, but it's just not meant to be
